ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.
An attempt to commit suicide on Saturday was unsuccessful on account of the prompt action of the officials at the Queen's Hospital, and a life was saved. Loss by death or loss by fire may both be protected by prompt and careful and intelligent action. Loss by fire can be guarded against and guaranteed by insuring with the Protector Underwriters of Hartford which is represented by the Real Estate Exchange on S. King street.

NEW SETTLEMENT OF SUMMER HOMES

MANY LOCAL PEOPLE HAVE TAKEN LEASES AT KAHALA AND WILL BUILD BUNGALOWS.—NEW COMMUNITY TO SPRING UP SUDDENLY BEYOND BLACK POINT—BETTER ROAD NEEDED—ELECTRICITY AND WATER WILL BE NEEDED AND BEACH IS FINE.

A new summer beach colony is being started at Kahala, just around Black Point from Kalahele. Nearly twenty-five leases have been taken up in the past few days for property in this section in which Queen Liliuokalani has a life interest. The leases are for the period of ten years and among those who have gone into the matter and who will soon erect summer bungalows are: Dr. C. B. Cooper, R. B. Anderson, J. G. Pratt, Charles S. Crane, George H. Angus, J. J. Belser, M. Campbell, W. H. Hoogs, F. Morgan, John Waterhouse, D. B. Macdonald, A. M. Brown, John Walker, R. B. Atkinson, James Wakefield, E. C. Peters, J. D. Tucker, L. G. Blackman, Henry Smith, J. G. Faria, F. J. Dutra and S. I. Shaw have already built bungalows. Plans are being set on foot at once through which the road from Diamond

Head to the lots is to be improved and water and electric lights brought in for the use of those who are about to build. The lots have been handed by Ex-Land Commissioner R. W. Pratt, acting as agent for the Queen, who is allowed under the terms of Mrs. Bishop's will to make leases for not over ten years. On the death of Liliuokalani the land goes to the Bishop estate.

There is a fine sand beach in front of the lots which run from Black Point at the George Carter summer home to the Bishop estate property on the further side. Both swimming and boating is unusually good, as the reef is far out and there is little coral on the beach. The lots are 130 feet in frontage and have been leased for $30 per year. It is understood that several of the lessees will start building the eastern states with unprecedented success. The electric mechanical device presents the latest singing, speaking and acting moving pictures in a startling life like manner and in perfect unison of voice and action. It will bring before your eyes and to your ears the latest European and American hits in the historic world and must be seen to be fully realized and appreciated.

AT THE THEATERS

Rain again interfered seriously with the programs in the open air theaters Saturday night, but the crowds at the enclosed amusement places were satisfactory. The "Nightingales" at the Empire drew well, and the big Saturday night crowds at the Art and Gem were fully up to expectations. With indications of good weather this week, all of the managers are hopeful of even better results during the six nights.

THE SEVENTH WONDER.
The Octophone which will make its first appearance at the Gem Theater on Thursday, July 29, is said to be the most marvelous invention of the present day and has been exhibited before all crowned heads of Europe and to vast enthusiastic audiences in

THE EMPIRE.
At the Empire tonight Manager Overend will show his patrons a boxing contest, going three rounds. It is a swift mill and will delight the ring fans. The celebrated Hilo Nightingales will again appear in musical specialties. The picture program will include a number of excellent films.

AT THE ART.
The feature at the Art theater this evening will be "The Tale of a Harim." Its name indicates, it is an Oriental story, with all the rich, scenic adornments of such sketches. The film is said to be high class in character.

"CHARLOTTE CORDAY."
The feature at the Park theater this evening will be the "Life and Trial of Charlotte Corday." This is a story full of interest, and was the subject of study in one of the local schools last term. The little Melotte sisters will appear in new songs and there will be several interesting specialties.

WITHIN EASY DISTANCE.
Many tourists have asked the name of the river on which Haleiwa is situated and almost as many have failed to secure the information because they did not inquire in the right direction. Manager Kimball says it is the Anahulu, being Hawaiian for "One month." It would be as fascinating by any other name and Haleiwa would no doubt be as attractive to Honolulu folk as a place for spending their vacation in the summer time. To Haleiwa is a fine automobile run and it is a nice ride by train, also. There is good bathing near the house, excellent golf links and the cuisine is unsurpassed. It is the place for all tourists to visit and a good spot for vacation days.
